

Crowdfunding and Investors for Small Businesses

Are you curious about crowdfunding and how it might help your business?
Have you thought about soliciting investors in your business?

The Securities Division of the Vermont Department of Financial Regulation will be hosting a seminar on how small businesses can capitalize by offering investment opportunities to the public. The seminars are geared toward Vermont business owners, but anyone with interest is invited to attend. There is no charge to attend, but please register in advance using the link below.

Topics will include:

- The basics of securities: equity, debt, and how securities function;
- Different types of crowdfunding;
- Soliciting investors using Vermont's crowdfunding rules;
- The role of attorneys and third-party portals; and
- The practicalities of offering securities by small businesses.
