DOCKET NO. 18-014-I

DEFAULT JUDGMENT AND ORDER

Findings of Fact

1. Respondent SAUL D. SUSTER holds Vermont non-resident insurance producer license # 603301, first issued June 23, 2008 with an expiration date of March 31, 2019.
2. Respondent's current registered business address and mailing address is 2700 W. Cypress Creek Road, Suite A110, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309-1773.
3. Respondent's Florida resident producer license was suspended on February 20, 2018.

Conclusions of Law

4. A nonresident producer license is predicated upon the licensee having a resident producer license in good standing in the licensee's home state. Respondent's resident producer license has been suspended in his home state of Florida in violation of 8 V.S.A. § 4813h.
5. The Commissioner may revoke a non-resident producer license if he finds circumstances currently exist that would have caused the Commissioner to refuse to issue the license had the circumstances existed at that time. Respondent holds a non-resident producer license without having a resident producer license in good standing in the licensee's home state in violation of 8 V.S.A. § 4804(a)(2).
6. The Commissioner may revoke any non-resident producer license if he finds that the licensee has been suspended or revoked in any other state. Respondent has had his license suspended in Florida in violation of 8 V.S.A. § 4804(a)(10).
7. Pursuant to 8 V.S.A. § 15 the Commissioner may issue orders necessary to the administration of and to carry out the purposes of Title 8 of the Vermont Statutes.
8. Respondent, pursuant to Section 5(a) of Regulation 82-1 (Revised) ("Regulation 82-1"), was required to file an answer no later than 30 days after the date of service of the petition in this contested case.

9. Section 12 of Regulation 82-1 provides, that where a Respondent, against whom a pleading initiating a contested case has been properly served, fails to answer within the time-period specified in Section 5(a) or fails to defend the charge, the Petitioner may move for a decision by default. The Commissioner may render a decision by default at any time after the passage of ten days from the date of filing and service of the motion for default, whereupon the Commissioner may issue any applicable order.

10. Section 5(b) of Regulation 82-1 provides, that if a Respondent fails to serve an answer timely, the allegations contained in the pleading that initiated the contested case will be treated as proven and a default judgment may be entered as provided in Section 12 of this regulation.

11. Respondent has failed to respond to the Insurance Division's Motion for Default Judgment and ten (10) days have passed since the time of the filing of the motion.
